Wednesday at 7 AM Pacific

September 16th 2015: Childhood Cancer and Shattering Stereotypes

Kathryn interviews cancer survivor Sally Loughridge PhD, author and illustrator of "Daniel and His Starry Night Blanket: A Story of Illness and Sibling Love". When a child has a critical illness parents must cope with the diagnosis, the treatment and their own emotional responses. Young siblings may feel abandoned amid intense parental attention to a sick sibling. This is the story of a young boy as he is impacted by his sister's cancer journey. Dr. Loughridge is a child psychologist, cancer survivor and artist. Kathryn also interviews Carol Vallone Mitchell PhD, author of "Breaking Through
