Good Grief with Cheryl Jones
Wednesday at 2 PM Pacific
September 23rd 2015: The Power of One

Lynda Fell's life was full and happy, with family at the center of it all. Then she got the call no one can imagine getting, "your daughter has been in an accident." On the way, she was not expecting what she found when she got to the accident site. Her beautiful, talented and amazing 15 year old, Aly, had died. This most terrible of losses propelled her into deep grief and also into dedicating her life to helping others in the same circumstance. And when her husband suffered a stroke not long afterwards, both her grief and her commitment to service found a new dimension. Through speaking, wri
