October 06th 2015:QDNA Epigenetics Happiness Genes, Unlock the Positive Potential Hidden in Your DNA

Learn to stop blaming your genes, your "genetics". Learn how to stop being hijacked by your genes. Learn how to stop being a passenger of the negative genetic destiny of the life you believe you didn't sign up for. Two types of happiness exist. One is from the mutations emerging of Psychology, the New Era of Positive Psychology which teaches at major universities the components termed as "common happiness": pleasures, meaning and self improvement. Our guest James D. Baird, PhD states, "These are subjectively verifiable variables. Personal experience can validate what is true for the indiv

James D Baird, PhD

James D. Baird, PhD is a renaissance man with 40 years of experience as a successful inventor, graduate engineer who pioneered a new science of "ultrasonics" which earned him several patents. He founded Dynasonics, Inc., a design and manufacturing company of ultrasonic sensors and computers. His inventory background instilled in him a persistent curiosity about how things work, translating from mechanisms to life. His passion for understanding the bioengineering that makes us human, combined with his religious and spiritual beliefs led him to research the subject of happiness for more than 20 years, and in the process, earned him a PhD in Natural Health. Dr. Baird studied genetics, common be
