September 29th 2015: Creating a Win-Win for Well Being...Seniors Helping Seniors

Many people during life's journey want to remain in their homes but need a little help with cleaning, meal making, medications or running errands. We all want to remain independent without relying on family and friends. There is a solution from Seniors Helping Seniors providing in-home services by matching seniors who want to help with seniors who need a little help. This peer-to-peer assistance allows seniors to have those needs met in a way that is caring and is coming from someone they relate to. This matching also allows seniors the opportunity to stay active in their community and feel th

Featured Guest

Sherry Jones

Sherry Jones graduated from The Ohio State University with a Bachelors of Science Degree in dental hygiene and education. For over 21 years, she was a professional in the pharmaceutical industry in marketing and sales. After a downsizing from her corporate position, Sherry had a passion to embark on a career path that would be a positive force in helping others. She and her husband, Dan discovered Seniors Helping Seniors, an in-home services company, with franchises throughout the U.S. The organization was founded by Kiran Yocom, who has a mission and a passion to help seniors live independently. Kiran's personal interest in seniors grew from working with Mother Teresa. Sherry coordinates th
