

Family Caregivers Unite!

Archives Available

November 17th 2015: Caring for Schizophrenia: Questions for the New Government of Canada

Florence Budden is a mental health nurse and nursing instructor at the Centre for Nursing Studies in St. John's Newfoundland. Ryan Clarke, a lawyer, founded Advocacy Solutions, a business providing a voice to organizations and individuals through the development and implementation of impactful advocacy strategies. They outline their careers and their work especially as it relates to mental health. They identify what they see as the main challenges faced by individuals living with schizophrenia and by their families and family caregivers when they become involved with governments, using crimina

Read more

Tune in

Archives Available on VoiceAmerica Variety Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Featured Guests

Guest Image

Florence Budden

Florence Budden is a mental health nurse and nursing instructor at the Centre for Nursing Studies in St. John's Newfoundland, Canada. She recently became the president of the Canadian Federation of Mental Health Nurses. She holds the bachelor's degree in nursing from Memorial University and has a certification in Psych Mental Health Nursing from the Canadian Nurses Association. She's the past president of the Schizophrenia Society of Canada and the past president of the Schizophrenia Society of Newfoundland and Labrador. She's the current Co-Chair for Advocacy for the Schizophrenia Society of Canada. She's a representative on the Canadian Alliance for Mental Illness and Mental Health. She's

Read more

Ryan Clarke

Ryan Clarke, a lawyer, is the founder of Advocacy Solutions, a business committed to providing a voice to organizations and individuals through the development and implementation of impactful advocacy strategies. He holds an Honours BA and a Masters Degree in Political Science. He went on to study law, graduating in 1993. He practiced exclusively in the area of family law for almost three years. In 1997, he became a policy advisor within the Government of Ontario. Two years later he joined Glaxo Wellcome (now GlaxoSmithKline Inc.) where he was a Senior Manager in Public Affairs specializing in public policy and government relations at the municipal, provincial and federal levels. Advocacy So

Read more

Share This Episode

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

