November 19th 2015: Keep The Waters Flowing

We are opening to new ways of helping communities and children become more aware of how we treat our waters, the sacred blood of Mother Earth, and what we can collectively do to energize and honor the spirit of water. In my tribe, we always looked 500 years into the future. How will our children's waters be in 500 years? We always did a ceremony at the source waters every spring to energize all living things that are fed by the waters. Guided by the ancient teachings of our ancestors, our mission is to educate, inspire, and encourage all peoples of all traditions to bring their pure thou

Featured Guest

Marshall Jack aka Golden Eagle

Marshall is a member of the Washoe Tribe of California and Nevada. Family history includes great-grandparents and grandparents who were medicine people and healers. Marshall is one of the few medicine people who carry the original teachings passed down through many generations of ancestors. Marshall has trained extensively under Spiritual and Medicine Elders from the Washoe, Shoshone, Paiute, and Miwok nations since 1960. He is considered a Spiritual Leader, Advisor, Ceremonial Leader, and Healer.
