November 18th 2015: Adversity

"Adversity"

Every day when we turn on our computers and televisions or open our newspapers, we witness tragedies, whether locally, nationally, or globally, that grip our attention. It appears that darkness is vying for our attention to rob us of joy. Adversity and psychological oppression have become the norm. Sadness abounds because we hear the voice of the distracter so loudly that we cannot hear the voice of God.

Adversity is part of our lives and can take shape in many forms. We often let adversity shape us, but it's in how we perceive adversity that will ultimately
