December 18th 2015: Getting Unstuck: Finding the Freedom to Explore Your Potential

You've heard yourself and others say, "I wish I won the lottery so that I can do what I want." At different times of your life, you might feel stuck in roles at home or work and don't know how to change the situation. How you conduct yourself at home correlates with your behaviors at work. Often the roles you take on are based on your strengths, needs, and family upbringing. Family values and messages handed down to you critically influence your choices, and interplay with your strengths to keep you in familiar roles. While your success in these roles can be rewarding, overreliance on the f
