December 3rd 2015: To Catch an Angel

Jody Sharpe wrote "The Angel's Daughter" after her own daughter was killed in an automobile accident and writing the book helped her heal. It is not a book about sadness but about love, joy and caring. She now has published her second book, "To Catch an Angel." Jody will tell us her story—a story of a woman who vowed, after losing her daughter, that she would not give in to the bitterness that often robs people after they lose someone they love or after an agonizing failure of some kind. We will talk about walking through pain and coming out on the other side. In her hardest days she continue
