Disability Matters

Tuesday at 11 AM Pacific

December 08th 2015: Emily Ladau, Disability Rights Activist, Communications Consultant, and Writer

Joyce welcomes Emily Ladau who is a passionate disability rights activist, communications consultant, and writer. She uses her skills as a communications consultant, to harness the powers of communication and social media as tools for people to become informed and engaged about disability and other social justice issues. Emily will be discussing her internationally known blog, "Words I Wheel By", which is a platform to address discrimination and to encourage people to understand the experience of having a disability in more positive, accepting, and supportive ways. Emily's activism is driven
