December 31st 2015: Leadership: What does it take to be an effective leader today

This episode is about Leadership and what it takes to lead today. Is leadership about authority or influence? Does the real leader hold the position or the power? Are they running the meeting or leading the people? How can you make sure you are truly leading? I will chat about all of these concepts in this weeks' episode and share some of my experiences – what I have learned about true leadership - The successes and the failures. This is what they couldn't teach you in business school....because you have to live it to get it.
