January 12th 2016: Therapeutic Jurisprudence - The Lawyer as Healer?

Michael Crystal is a partner at the law firm of Spiteri & Ursulak LLP, where he currently leads the class action group, <http://crystalcyrlaw.com/>. He explains difficulties faced by lawyers when clients and third parties have needs beyond the scope of therapeutic jurisprudence, what he means by therapeutic jurisprudence and healer, and what attracts his interest. He explains with examples ways in which the role of healer can assist lawyers, and their clients and third parties who have mental health needs that may be beyond the scope of the justice system even when criminality is involved. He hi
