The Power of Natural Healing Monday at 11 AM Pacific

January 25th 2016: Francesca Dego, world class violinist, Dr. Gerson's great-granddaughter

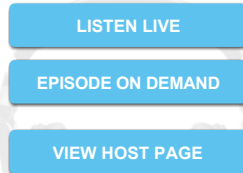

We have the extraordinary honor of interviewing Francesca Dego (full disclosure: my niece), a world class violinist now visiting the US on a concert tour. She has played in many of the great concert halls of the world, from Moscow and London to Beijing and South America. Francesca has competed in many violin contests, and consistently finishes at or near the top, among some of the world's best violinists. She has recorded four CDs, two with her accomplished pianist partner Francesca Leonardi, for Deutsche Grammophon, the top classical music publisher in the world. We recently attended her w

Francesca Dego

Francesca Dego is quickly developing into one of the most sought after young violinists on the international scene. Signed since 2012 by Deutsche Grammophon, her debut album of Paganini's 24 Caprices, recorded on the ex-Ricci Guarneri del Gesu instrument, received high critical acclaim. The final volume of her complete recording of Beethoven's Violin Sonatas was released in October 2015. Born in Lecco in 1989, Francesca gave her concerto debut in California at the age of 7 performing Bach, in Italy aged 14 with the Beethoven Concerto and at 15 she performed the Brahms concerto at Milan's Sala Verdi conducted by György Györiányi Ráth and Mozart's Sinfonia Concertante at Tel Aviv Opera
