March 08th 2016: Mental Health Crisis Response- Collaboration with Crisis Centers and Law Enforcement

We hear all too often in the news about tragedies that include individuals with mental illness. It is critical when someone is in distress that immediate intervention is provided. At times these situations escalate to the point of life or death. This show will highlight the issue of mental health, the types of crisis response services available and the key role that crisis centers and police play in helping to keep the person impacted by a mental health crisis and our community safe. Our guests will discuss signs and symptoms of various mental health conditions and what you can do if someone is
