Working on Purpose New Episodes Weekly

March 23rd 2016: A Hand Up and Shout Out to All Female Business Owners

Do you love what you do and enjoy working for yourself but feel stretched too thin? Maybe you're working entirely too many hours without achieving the results you want or deserve? Or, perhaps you aren't working as productively in your day as you can. Many women start a business to share their professional gifts and hope doing so will allow them precious time for other important parts of life. But for many, the workload becomes consuming without a sufficient return on investment or significant income stream. In this episode, we talk with small business coach expert Leslie Hassler as she shares
