

Goodnight Marilyn Radio: The Investigation.
The Life. The Movie
Archives Available
April 15th 2016: Encore: The Ambulance Theory

Tune in

Archives Available on VoiceAmerica
Variety Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Goodnight Marilyn Radio dissects the 1982/85 D.A. Report. This week be prepared to hear the overview of what is in the D.A report as it relates to "The Ambulance Theory." Is James Hall, Schafer ambulance attendant credible? Is it true? Could there have been an ambulance called? If so, was Marilyn still alive and what time was it? Based on what we know now, we can safely say that Marilyn died, between 8-10pm. Join the conversation this week as we dispel fact from fiction and probable theory from outlandish rumor!

SHARE

DOWNLOAD PDF

GET CODE

Featured Guests

Gary Vitacco-Robles

Gary Vitacco-Robles is the best-selling author of Cursum Perficio: Marilyn Monroe's Brentwood Hacienda/The Story of Her Final Months and ICON: The Life, Times, and Films of Marilyn Monroe, Volume 1 & 2. He is also a Licensed Mental Health Counselor and National Certified Counselor in practice in Tampa, Florida.

Read more

Leslie Kasperowicz

Leslie has been studying the life of Marilyn Monroe for 25 years. She has been working with Immortal Marilyn since 1998 to protect and preserve Marilyn's memory and promote the truth about her life.

Read more

Marijane Gray

A fan of Marilyn Monroe for over twenty years, Marijane Gray has been a staff writer for ImmortalMarilyn.com since 2011. She has also assisted authors and journalists with research about Marilyn.

Read more

Share This Episode

Share On Facebook

Share On Twitter

Share On LinkedIn

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

Come see what VoiceAmerica's hosts are writing, on PressBlog!

