April 14th 2016:Encore: Bob Sima: Picking Up Where John Lennon Left Off

Bob Sima is to music what Wayne Dyer, Don Miguel Ruiz, and Eckhart Tolle are to books and Rumi, Hafiz, and David Whyte are to poetry. He has been called "Eckhart Tolle with a guitar." He is a "Transformational Troubadour," a way-shower, a guide, an awakener, and a musical mystic. Through the medium of melody and message, he leads listeners to an expanded consciousness, deeper sense of connection, and inner peace and purpose. His music bridges daily life and soul consciousness, the eternal with the now. He delivers instantly accessible songs that take up residence and resonance in your soul. Do

Featured Guest

Bob Sima

Influenced more by Rumi and Gandhi, than by Dylan and Springsteen, Bob Sima has established himself as a headliner, teacher, keynote musician, and transformational leader in venues across the country. He has shared the stage with Marianne Williamson, Gay Hendricks, Jack Kornfield, Peter Russell and many other luminaries. The Maryland-based artist performs concerts, musical meditations, and workshops at festivals, retreats, spiritual centers, holistic health centers, listening rooms, and corporate events
