May 12th 2016: Move from Suffering into Joy

When Lynn Cockrum-Murphy was three years old, she was burned badly in a fire that took her two sisters and her father. She experienced further overwhelming setbacks and losses and now shares the poignant story of her experiences and the power of questioning, seeking, studying, and living in hope that a joyful life is possible no matter how heartbreaking the past. Instead of giving in to family dysfunction she moved beyond the events of the past and now writes about dealing with trauma, loss, abuse and family alcoholism. She shows there is a way to happiness. Interwoven as she recounts the even
