May 31st 2016: The Accidental Business Person

Mick McDonald, Founder of Compass Expeditions and Bike Round Oz runs an amazingly successful business yet he calls himself an Accidental Business Person.

According to Mick, Running international motor cycle tours is not the easiest business in the world. It takes a lot of work and relies on good relationships that the company forms with other people and businesses to make sure everything runs smoothly.

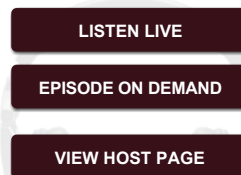

In this episode Mick shares the lessons he's learnt along his business journey, describing himself as being clueless and resistant to business principles when he first started, h

Mick McDonald

Mick McDonald, Founder of Compass Expeditions and Bike Round Oz runs an amazingly successful business yet he calls himself an Accidental Business Person. Starting his business in 2004, he now runs an Australian based, international business with his business partners, guiding adventurers around the world on motorcycle tours through some of the most scenic and hard to access places on the planet. According to Mick, Running international motor cycle tours is not the easiest business in the world. It takes a lot of work and relies on good relationships that the company forms with other people and businesses to make sure everything runs smoothly. The company's philosophy is clear:
