May 24th 2016: Planning Your Personal Power, Development and Success

We know that we are the ones who decide to live the kind and quality of life we want and we aspire. And it means we have to create our plan, goals and strategies that will allow us to be successful in our lives. We know that 'Practice makes Perfect'; but how do we practice Success?

When I met Rachel O'Brien Eddy almost three years ago she was on the path of discovering how she could help thousands of people all over the world find their purpose and their mission and as a result, she created an incredible system built on trust, and self-belief: it is called the Infinite Success System.
