June 21st 2016: The Fish and the Atheist

Today we see many atheists celebrating the collapse of Christianity as their churches are losing more and more attendants. To celebrate the defeat of a "belief" in some deity that was fabricated by the church is one's choice. But to then hold onto a "belief" in nothing, is sheer dishonesty because that becomes just another piece of non-theistic dogma. So my challenge to all my atheist friends is to go beyond the sheer nonsense of any kind of "belief" at all. It is time to KNOW, not just react. When did fish discover water? When did humans become aware that they were breathing air? Toda
