June 23rd 2016: Is anybody listening? When your parents refuse to listen and your adult children don't want to listen

The phenomenon is the same. Discussing retirement, finances, selling the family home and making end-of-life decisions for or with your parents often makes us feel uncomfortable or anxious. Yet, discussing these sensitive topics makes for a less stressful and happier life. Tim Prosch, Author of The Other Talk, has been featured in the Wall Street Journal, NPR's Next Avenue, and the recipient of awards for innovative and strategic thinking. Tim offers advice on how to take control and make decisions and shared care arrangements based on your wishes before family conflict arises. Ca
