Nathalie Chapron

Nathalie Chapron believes a person is most compelling when their style is a reflection of their unique essence. Nathalie blends her inherited French aesthetics and formal image consulting training to help her clients look and feel their best by aligning their inner and outer beauty. She is among an elite group of image consultants trained in the Suzanne Caygill method of color and style analysis. There is a waiting list for her private sessions, where she works from thousands of colors to create a custom palette that will transform each client's wardrobe and help them look her best every day, on and off stage. After working with Nathalie, her clients experience a visible increase in th
