July 27th 2016: Tampon Tax, Designing for Aging, Stop Whining

Over the past 20 months there has been a global movement to be more open about biological processes that for centuries have been seen as curses. Heather Brittany talks about the repeal of the "tampon tax" in Health Matters. As America's over 50 population rises, cities are looking at how they can best serve the aging population. With nine to ten adults wanting to age in their homes, we'll look at the options for successful design. Are you a blamer and complainer? It's time for an attitude adjustment. We'll show you ways to find the positives in the negatives and change your inner and
