July 21st 2016: Winning Ponies Welcomes Louisville Based Trainer Tom Drury and Saratoga Handicapper Tom Law

In June of 2016, Claiborne Farm has removed horses from the care of Al Stall, Jr., and distributed them to various trainers. Multiple graded stakes winner Departing, was transferred to the barn of Tom Drury. In his first start for Drury, Departing stormed home a two-length winner of the $100,000 Michael G. Schaefer Memorial Stakes on the Indiana Derby under-card. Tom will tell how it felt to win that race with Departing for Claiborne Farms and give us an insight into his operation. With Saratoga opening it's doors on Friday, Tom Law who teams up with the Clancy Brothers to publish the Sar

Tom Drury

In June of 2016, Claiborne Farm has removed horses from the care of Al Stall, Jr., and distributed them to various trainers. Multiple graded stakes winner Departing, who Claiborne owns in concert with Adele Dilschneider and who hadn't won a race since June of 2015, was transferred to the barn of Tommy Drury. And in his first start under Drury's name, Departing stormed home a two-length winner of the $100,000 Michael G. Schaefer Memorial Stakes on the Indiana Derby undercard at Indiana Grand.
