Mechi Garza

Mechi Garza is the modern day founder of Kolaimni. She was adopted and raised by a family in West Virginia. She claims ancestry from both European and Native Indian bloodlines; however, it wasn't until she was older that she discovered she was half Native Indian. She received the knowledge of Kolaimni from an ascended master named Lothar and started teaching it in 1980. She is now 92 and lives in West Virginia where she is still active in spreading this very powerful yet gentle technique.

Leslie Hollis

Leslie Hollis began her investigation of alternative and holistic healing methods in 1982 after a serious, dance related injury. When her grandmother was diagnosed with breast cancer, she began a focused study of holistic healing methods in an effort to find anything that could help her grandmother through the healing process.
