August 1st 2016: Why Countries Need Feminine Leadership Right Now

In this very first episode Gina Lazenby engages with three experts in Feminine leadership. First, Gina talks to Sydney based Dr David Paul, discussing a wave of feminine leadership sweeping the world, echoed by the recent appointment of Theresa May to the Prime Minister post in the UK. In the second part of the episode, the Country Report, Gina talks to Rúnna Magnúsdóttir who has had special insight into Iceland's contribution to the feminine leadership conversation. In the final part, Gina talks with local chapter leader of The Women's Equality Party in Harrogate, Yorkshire.
