August 03rd 2016: Engaging Boards for Greater Visionary Leadership and Support

Many nonprofits do not reach their full potential because greater engagement, support, and vision are needed from their boards. Boards that are able to offer not only oversight of what is, but vision and support for what could be can make a significant difference in an organization's ability to positively impact communities and exceed goals. On this week's episode of Leadership Matters, Dr. Sheryl White, Vice President of the Training and Organization Development with the Neighborhood House Association in San Diego, CA will discuss how to effectively engage boards to achieve greater visionary
