August 11th 2016: Who, Me? Need a Coach?

We're all familiar with coaching, aren't we? We've know the football coach, the basketball coach and other sports coaches since we were in high school. We accept the concept that the team needs a coach who turns beginning players into members of a team that, hopefully, wins. Businesses are more and more providing coaches for their employees to help them become more productive members of the business "team." We also have coaches for health, personal, professional, social, family, political, and spiritual dimensions. You name it, there's probably a coach for it. But many of us, as individuals, h
