September 13th 2016: Rape Culture, The Joyful Heart Foundation, Rape Crisis and Human Trafficking Across the Globe - An Epidemic. A Conversation with Natasha Alexenko and Rajiv Uttamchandani

A powerful and empowering episode about survival & activism. We will be discussing Rape Culture in America, Rape Crisis, Human Trafficking, sex crimes, and the work ahead of us to stop these either deadly or entirely life-altering epidemics. Natasha and Rajiv will both provide us with information and some instruction on how to advocate and support others, and Natasha & I will tell our own personal stories of survival as well and guide others in coping with the surreal trauma response that is the aftermath of surviving rape.

Featured Guests

Natasha Alexenko

At the age of 19, Natasha Alexenko was raped and robbed at gunpoint in New York City. Due to a backlog of thousands of rape kits, it took nearly 10 years to process her rape kit and identify her attacker. While her kit collected dust on a shelf, the man that raped Natasha was on a nationwide crime-spree.
