

Women and Sport: The Long Road Up Archives Available

August 30th 2016: Where we have been and what lies ahead

Coming to the end of this Series and our portion of 'The Long Road Up', we have guests who can share, not only perceptions of the journey thus far, but most importantly the way forward. Their perspectives focus on progress and obstacles in the racially diverse USA and giving an overview of the 'super continent' of our planet: Africa. Gabarone Botswana is the 2018 site of the next meeting of the global women's sport advocacy community at the World Congress of the International Working Group of Women in Sport. You will want to know more and make plans to attend.

Tune in

Archives Available on VoiceAmerica
Empowerment Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

SHARE DOWNLOAD PDF GET CODE

Featured Guests

Guest Image

Dr. Alpha Alexander

Dr. Alpha Alexander is Fitness Director at Walter State Community College and Chair of the Morrirstown Tenn. Diversity Committee. Alexander earned degrees at College at Wooster(Ohio) and doctorate at Temple University.

Read more

Dr. Ellen Staurowsky

Dr. Ellen J. Staurowsky is a professor of sport management and interim associate director for the Center of Hospitality and Sport Management at Drexel University. She is internationally recognized as an expert on social justice issues in sport including college athletes' rights, the exploitation of college athletes, gender equity and Title IX, and the misappropriation of American Indian imagery in sport.

Read more

Game Mothibi

Game Mothibi - IWG Secretary General

Read more

Guest Image

Boitumelo Kenosi

Boitumelo Kenosi, Marketing and Public Relations Manager IWG Responsible for the development and implementation of communications, marketing and promotion strategies and plans and maximize awareness of IWG's mandate.

Read more

Share This Episode

Share On Facebook Share On Twitter Share On LinkedIn

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

