September 09th 2016: Facing Unemployment

Unemployment looms over anyone who works for someone else. The almighty dollar is king and people are the means to more, if it is thought you are not a quick goodbye is coming. No company or business is completely loyal to their employees. The values that once push the United States to the top is gone. We must be rugged individuals faced with the prognosis that on the average the majority of adults will go through at least 4 career jobs before retirement -if that is in the cards-. Tune in and learn how to survive!!
