October 12th 2016: Encore: Leaders' Responsibility and Domestic Violence

In recent months, challenges regarding domestic violence and organizations' responsibility to expect and support ethical behavior of their employees has made its way into the media and policy platforms. Additionally, the potential danger associated with escalated spousal/family disputes that can find themselves spilling over into incidents of violence in the workplace has made it clear that turning a blind eye to this concern can lead to unexpected volatile and hazardous situations. What is a leader's role and what are their responsibilities related to the issue of domestic violence? What is
