November 18th 2016: FARsighted Business: Keys to Executing on Your Mission and Innovating as an Entrepreneur

As an entrepreneur who happens to be a lawyer, for almost 30 years Eliot Wagonheim has worked with business owners, entrepreneurs, and want-to-preneurs in companies of every size, in every industry. He's seen crashes and burns, tremendous successes, and has worked with some of the most successful and recognized brands in the United States. Eliot will share what he's learned about how you can find, articulate, and execute on your mission. He'll provide guidance on recruiting and inspiring employees who are aligned with your vision, and how you can tune into and retain your core audience and client.

Featured Guest

Eliot Wagonheim, JD

Eliot is the founder of Wagonheim Law, a business and construction firm based in Hunt Valley, Maryland. Now in his 28th year in practice, he represents small to medium-sized businesses in a wide array of industries in both litigation and corporate matters. Eliot has been selected as a Maryland Super Lawyer and one of SmartCEO Magazine's Legal Elite as a "go-to" business lawyer. He holds the coveted AV rating (excellent to pre-eminent) compiled by Martindale-Hubbell based on peer review for legal ability and ethical values. He is a contributor to the Huffington Post and his blog has been published both regionally and nationally. He is also the author of the "Fire, Aim...Ready" ebook series.
