Sex Out Loud with Tristan Taormino Friday at 5 PM Pacific

October 28th 2016: MacKenzie Peck of Math Magazine with a Fresh Take on a Dirty Magazine

MacKenzie Peck, editor of Brooklyn-based Math Magazine joins us right at the release of issue three of this progressive porn quarterly. Math Magazine is an independent, female operated business dedicated to the production of ethical, diverse, and sex-positive media using honest and altruistic practices. Everyone included in the production shares creative influence and personal vulnerability as they explore the spectrum of sexuality through depictions of an array of genders, assorted bodies, and a bouquet of beauty types.

Featured Guest

MacKenzie Peck

MacKenzie grew up in Connecticut and attended the Maryland Institute College of Art. After graduation, MacKenzie had a job at the prestigious Grimaldis Gallery and an artist residency at The Creative Alliance at Patterson Park. Yet after a successful Kickstarter campaign and large-scale exhibition, MacKenzie felt unfulfilled, drained, and disconnected. And so, she began thinking about creative, socially impactful, entrepreneurial work that could reach a larger audience. Her path took an unusual course from Baltimore to Tennessee, Germany, South Carolina, and Connecticut before landing in Brooklyn in 2015. And so, MacKenzie's relationship with New York City has evolved in tandem with her bu
