The Optimal Health Hour
Tuesday at 2 PM Pacific
November 01st 2016: Naturopathic Pediatric Medicine

Optimal Health Hour - Naturopathic Pediatric Medicine This week's episode will center on how children's illnesses are cured with naturopathic medicine. Many times conventional medicine and pharmaceutical treatments fail to identify and correct the cause of the illness. Naturopathic Pediatric Medicine can identify and correct core body issues which cause disease in children. This is achieved without harsh treatments and synthetic prescriptions which many times have significant side effects. Don't miss out and be with us for the next Optimal Health Hour episode.
