Bowe Bergdahl: who is he and why should we care? Charged with desertion from the Army and misbehaving before the enemy in Afghanistan, his future hangs in the balance today. Is he a traitor, mentally ill - or both? Today's guest, Luke Adler, is an award-winning former Marine and, after being honorably discharged, joined the U.S. Marshals Service, where he was involved in the apprehension of several of the Top 15 Most Wanted fugitives. He is the author of Chasing Bandits, true stories of bandits on the run who thought they could avoid capture. Dr. Carole believes the army slipped up in ignoring

Luke Adler

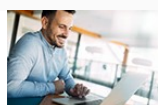

Luke Adler is the author of Chasing Bandits, which chronicles the true stories of ten bandits on the run who thought they could escape capture. They were wrong. With a writing style that reads like a crime novel, retired Deputy U.S. Marshal Luke Adler takes the reader inside the operations to catch these criminals.
