Getting In: A College Coach Conversation

Getting In: A College Coach Conversation Thursday at 1 PM Pacific

December 08th 2016: School's In! Application Workshop: Princeton, Yale, and Dartmouth Supplements: To Transfer or Not to Transfer

To transfer or not to transfer—that is the question! Meet Brooke, who came home from college after a few months determined to transfer. She's going to share why, what her research uncovered, and whether or not she ultimately decided to stay put or move on. In our weekly School's In! Application Workshop, we'll complete our tour of Ivy supplements with a deeper dive into Yale, Princeton, and Dartmouth's supplemental requirements.

I came to College Coach after working for many years in college admissions and high school counseling. Counseling was a career that interested me because, at the low-performing public high school I attended, college guidance was almost non-existent. The inequality of access I saw firsthand inspired me to earn my Master's of Education and work in public schools. I also spent time at an overseas school in Thailand guiding students through the application process for universities around the world. I later transitioned to admissions at USC, where I began as an assistant director, recruiting and reading thousands of freshman and transfer applications. I later moved on to the USC Dornsife Colleg
