

Speaking of Fire Archives Available December 21st 2016: Fire 101

Join us and Dr. John DeHaan, Dr. David Icove and Investigator Tom Fee as we discuss spontaneous human combustion, fire deaths, ignitable liquids, the FBI's National Center for the Analysis of Violent Crime in Quantico, Virginia, criminology, fire investigations and more.

SHARE DOWNLOAD PDF GET CODE

Tune in

Archives Available on VoiceAmerica
Variety Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Featured Guests

Dr. John DeHaan

Dr. John DeHaan has over 45 years experience in fire and explosion related forensic science. After earning his B.S. in Physics, he spent 29 years with County, State, and Federal forensic labs. He was awarded a Ph.D. in Pure & Applied Chemistry – Forensic Science in 1995. He has authored six editions of Kirk's Fire Investigation since 1982 and was co-author with Dr. David Icove in Forensic Fire Scene Reconstruction since 2004. Since 1999, he has been president of Fire-Ex Forensics, Inc., a private consulting firm that provides services to police and fire agencies, public defenders, private attorneys, and insurers in fire and explosion cases. His research into forensic fire scene reconstruct

Read more

Dr. David Icove

Dr. Icove, forensic fire engineering expert, with over 40 years of experience. He is the co-author of Kirk's Fire Investigation, Forensic Fire Scene Reconstruction, and Combating Arson-for-Profit, the leading textbooks in the field of fire investigation. He served for over four decades as a criminal investigator on the federal, state, and local levels. He is presently a Professor at The University of Tennessee, as well as an Adjunct Faculty member at the Department of Fire Protection Engineering, University of Maryland. He has testified as an expert witness in criminal and civil trials, including three times before U.S. Congressional committees regarding FBI initiatives to detect and

Read more

Tom Fee

Mr. Fee, Fire Fraud and Explosive Investigator for over 40 years, retired from the Pomona FD after 28 years. He worked in the arson/bomb unit for 25 years and was the supervisor for that unit for 15 years. As Chairman of the CA State Fire Training Advisory, he was instrumental in the development of the State Fire Training Curriculum for Fire and Arson Investigation Certification courses. He holds a lifetime CA Teaching Credential and taught college classes for over 25 years in Fire Suppression, Fire Prevention, Fire/Arson Investigation, Fire Death and Bomb Investigation. Mr. Fee has been a member of the International Association of Arson Investigators for over 40 years, served two ter

Read more

Share This Episode

Share On Facebook Share On Twitter Share On LinkedIn

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

