The Power of Natural Healing Monday at 11 AM Pacific

January 09th 2017: Nancy Kremer, producer, and the Max Gerson film

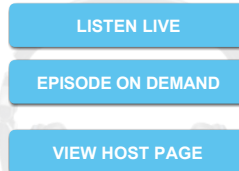

Producer Nancy Kremer is deeply imbedded in the Los Angeles film industry, with a long history of successes. She was first drawn to the story of Dr. Max Gerson after her father recovered from advanced prostate cancer on the Gerson Therapy, living an additional 14 years after his short and grim prognosis, eventually dying of lung fibrosis, cancer free. Nancy has written a screenplay based on the biography "Dr. Max Gerson: Healing the Hopeless," which dramatizes the struggle of this great healer against the forces of medical tyranny. Her goal is to tell Max Gerson's story to millions of people.

Featured Guest

Nancy Kremer

Nancy Kremer has worked in Hollywood discovering and managing young adults from the Midwest with enormous success for over 2 decades. She studied at The Writer's Bootcamp Two Year Professional Course where she has completed several features and pilots. Nancy was attracted to the life story of Max Gerson from a very personal experience. Her father was diagnosed with stage 4 prostate cancer that had spread to his bone marrow. Mayo Clinic in Rochester, MN gave him 6 months to 2 years to live. After implementing the Gerson Therapy, her father lived another 14+ years. He finally succumbed to fibrosis of the lungs, cancer free.
