January 13th: Personality Conflicts: How to Have Better Outcomes

For all of us, the person we do not get along with so well, who gets under our skin, presents the most difficult case for working through conflict and disagreement. It's not just about the content, it's also about the personality. Why are these situations so difficult to deal with? What can be done when such conflicts arise? Is mediation something to consider and how does it work? If you need advice on how to work with someone who is fundamentally different in style from you, tune in.
