January 17th 2017: The Presence of Peace: Confronting the good, the bad, and the ugly, while exploring acceptance.

Are you aware of the presence of peace in your life, in your relationships, in YOU? It's interesting, when you think about the word 'peace', and how it can be interpreted in so many different ways. It all depends on the individual's perspective... The choices that he, or she, makes when thinking about peace – about trusting yourself, and the universe, and whether this is something they can truthfully say is present in their existence. Some find this to be nonexistent, or even tending to point the 'finger of blame' on others for the lack of peace in their lives. While others might say they are a
