April 13th 2017: Do You Remember Who You Are?

If you were asked to define who you are, what would you say? Would you define yourself by your occupation? By your spouse and your children? By your hobbies? Can you answer the question, "Who are you?" Are you ready for a radical shift in perception—one that may challenge and profoundly alter your idea of who you are and what your purpose is on this planet? This is a question asked by Ron and Mary Hulnick who state "We all suffer from greater or lesser degrees of 'Spiritual amnesia.' We've forgotten who we are and why we're here. The process of remembering is an active process through which st
