Authentic Living Wednesday at 1 PM Pacific

April 19th 2017: Encore: Whosoever will--Let him take

This year, we've heard a lot about the bullying of gays and lesbians in schools all over the country. What we don't hear so much about is the bullying of members of the GLBT population in churches and in Christian communities all across the nation. In fact, both overt and covert bullying is most often done by people who want to exclude members of the GLBT population based on the erroneous notion that God hates them, or wishes them punished or excluded. Well, today, we are going to be talking to United Church of Christ minister, Candace Chellew-Hodge, author of "Bulletproof Faith: A Spiritual

Candace Chellew-Hodge

Candace Chellew-Hodge calls herself a recovering Southern Baptist and is the founder/editor of "Whosoever: An Online Magazine for GLBT Christians." Her first book, Bulletproof Faith: A Spiritual Survival Guide for Gay and Lesbian Christians, published by Jossey-Bass, assists members of the GLBT population in surviving the onslaught of both covert and overt abuse, by teaching them how to reclaim their authenticity and practice certain spiritual survival exercises. She is an award-winning former television and radio journalist, having served as a writer, reporter, and editor with CNN. Currently, she serves as the pastor of Jubilee! Circle, a new church start of the United Church of Christ in
