Winning Ponies Thursday at 5 PM Pacific

April 27th 2017: Winning Ponies Welcomes Attorney and Kentucky Derby Historian Dick Downey and DRF's Writer and Handicapper Byron King

Dick Downey concentrates his entire year on analyzing the Kentucky Derby. It has been a passion of his for decades and he will share his insights into this year's field with us this week. If you have been following the Derby trail you know that this is one of the most wide open Run for the Roses we have seen in years. That should make for plenty of betting opportunities and options to cash a big ticket. DRF's Byron King is a Louisville-based writer and handicapper who is dialed in to the action under the Twin Spires. In the first segment we will talk about his impressions of the Derby

Byron King

Byron King, a native of Louisville, Ky., is the Kentucky handicapper and columnist for Daily Racing Form. A graduate of the University of Arizona Racetrack Industry Program, he initially worked as the paddock host and morning-line odds maker for Sam Houston Race Park before joining DRF in 1995. Since that time, he has covered racing from across the country for the Form, with his primary focus now being on the Kentucky circuit, and Churchill Downs in particular. In addition to his handicapping and reporting duties for the Form, he is a horse owner and breeder, and has helped identify numerous eventual stakes winners for private purchase for clients.
