In my lifetime, I have seen wide swings in what kind of behavior is acceptable and what is not. We've gone from June Cleaver who did housework in high heels and was aghast over most of Beaver's behavior to Modern Family where pretty much anything goes. We have migrated from being shocked that a presidential candidate was divorced to hardly noticing that a President was having a very public affair. Dishonesty in business gets a ho-hum and commercials for women's underwear fill the TV screen. (some of us remember when it was terrible if your bra strap could be seen or your slip showed below the
