

The Art of Significance
Monday at 12 Noon Pacific
May 09th 2017: It's Showtime!

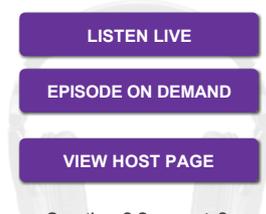

Dan's first show sets the expectations of what you will hear each week, by sharing his story of fighting back from a paralyzing injury that cut short his football career, and the lessons he learned about resiliency and how he discovered the difference between success and significance. Dan is also a Gold Record Songwriter and will always have a hit songwriter as his guest to talk about the influence of music in our lives. So in the second segment Dan interviews Grammy Award winning Songwriter of the Year Liz Rose who shares the secrets to writing her countless hits, and the story behind: 'G

Jason Sisneros

Jason Sisneros is a public speaker, entrepreneur, and philanthropist. His life has taken him around the world speaking on over 3000 stages, consulting with hundreds of business owners, and supporting charities across the globe. As a speaker, Jason takes very seriously a genuine responsibility to go out and be the spark, the inspiration that moves his audience the one millimeter, one inch, one step forward that they need to create momentum. What audiences connect with as Jason speaks is that he's not any different than they are. He had to fight to get all of the advantages that he now has. He had to fight, had to learn, had to use his intellect, and had to overcome his old self.
