Featured Guest

Jack Devine

Jack Devine served at the Central Intelligence Agency for more than 30 years, rising to become the acting deputy director of operations – the head of all CIA spying operations. He is the author of the New York Times best-seller Good Hunting: An American Spymaster's Story, which Bob Woodward called "a sophisticated, deeply informed account of real life in the real CIA that adds immeasurably to the public understanding of the espionage culture." Jack's story is revealed with gripping intrigue using emotional and social intelligence coupled with high-stakes maneuvering on major CIA missions.
