June 1st 2017: Human Trafficking in the UK and Europe Similarities and Differences to U.S. Trafficking

The epidemic of sex and labor trafficking is not just a U.S. phenomenon. This week's we will explore issues related to global human trafficking focusing primarily on Europe and UK cases. We will examine both the similarities and differences in these cases. And, we will look at the impact of mass migration of refugees and immigrants, where cartels and gangs prey on vulnerable and displaced peoples. We will also discuss law enforcement's response to the crime and compare sentencing and victim recovery programs to assist those who have been exploited.
