June 01st 2017: Making It Rock Despite Getting Knocked Down

Being able to get up and making it rock after getting knocked down is the key to success. So, how do you create resilience and keep fighting the odds? How do you find balance between trying to run a successful business and family time? Joining Brandy today is Nichole Peters. She is an international publisher, best-selling author and inspirational speaker. Together, they will discuss Nichole's "Make It Rock" tour and the lessons she has learned from getting up after each of life's challenges. They will also discuss the importance of reaching back and helping to lift others.
